International Medieval Congress

4 - 7 July 2022

The International Medieval Congress (IMC) is the largest annual gathering of medievalists in Europe, focusing upon all aspects of the Middle Ages (c. 300-1500).

In 2019, over 2,800 medievalists from all over the world attended the event. In 2020 and 2021, IMC was run as an online event attracting over 2000 attendees. Now in its 29th Year, IMC 2022 will see the return of Congress to the University of Leeds campus, whilst retaining an option for virtual attendance for those unable to travel.

This year's Programme features medievalists from over 59 countries, with over 1,800 individual papers and 600 academic sessions and a range of concerts, performances, round tables, excursions, the bookfair, and associated events. As of January 2022, 88% of participants indicated that they intend to attend the event in-person in Leeds.

If you wish to take advantage of any of the opportunities outlined in this booklet, please book online at <https://www.imc.leeds.ac.uk/exhibitors> or contact us at imc@leeds.ac.uk.
