

Yorkist History Trust

The Yorkist History Trust is a charity founded to advance and disseminate research and education related to the study of late medieval England (and in particular the life and reign of King Richard III).

We offer grants for research projects, for publication costs, and for ad hoc expenses (including archival trips, imaging costs, and permission fees). The Trust actively publishes its own monographs, critical source editions, and volumes of collected essays, and welcomes applications for new publications. Our current volumes are available to purchase from Shaun Tyas, including new titles for 2024 Late Medieval Bristol: Time, Space and Power and The Lordship of Middleham in 1465-6 and 1473-4.

Anyone working on or researching late medieval England in all its forms is eligible to apply for a grant or submit a proposal for a volume. We welcome applications from PGRs and ECRs as well as established academics and independent researchers.
